

Partial list of chain restaurants that have eliminated most or all artificial trans fats:

McDonald's
Wendy's
Jason's Deli
KFC
Taco Bell
Burger King
Krispy Kreme
Sonic
Chili's Grill & Bar
CiCi's Pizza

Pei Wei
Uno's
Ruby Tuesday
Arby's
Denny's
Applebee's
Dunkin' Donuts
Subway
Carl's Jr.
Hardee's

TGI Friday's
Bennigan's
Starbuck's Coffee
Red Lobster
Olive Garden
Longhorn Steakhouse
Souper Salad
Cheesecake Factory

Partial list of companies/products that have eliminated artificial trans fats:

Kraft
Campbell's Soup & Spaghetti-O's
Frito-Lay's, Lay's, Ruffles
Pepperidge Farm
Girl Scout cookies
Crisco

"The Texas Restaurant Association appreciates the work Sen. Shapleigh has done to eliminate trans fats from foods served in restaurants, while assuring that the transition does not harm the industry. We support passage of S.B. 204 as amended."

*Glen Garey, General Counsel
Texas Restaurant Association*

Texas Retailers Association

The Voice of Texas Retail

"The Texas Retailers Association supports S.B. 204, as amended, to eliminate trans fats from food served in restaurants. We appreciate Senator Shapleigh's working with our association to address the concerns we raised on behalf of our members. We support passage of S.B. 204 as amended."

*Ronnie Volkening, President
Texas Retailers Association*

"The restaurant industry is committed to practical, achievable and long-term solutions that have a positive health impact on consumers and that also allow us to make the products consumers know and love. Our industry's objective is to provide a wide range of food options to accommodate the variety of needs of our diverse population."

*Leo Duran, Sr., Owner
L&J Café in El Paso*